Caring for Our Common Home

(Contact: Jeanne Schrempf: jdschrempf@verizon.net)

Pope Francis encourages us to begin this New Year with a commitment to a "culture of care" that will permeate all of society. Each person and each family can take small but significant steps to protect our earth and all who share our common home. As we take down the decorations of Christmas and dispose of wrapping and boxes, let us resolve to recycle them to lessen the impact on landfills.

- Cardboard, paper, clothing can be placed in the Elm Ave CDTA Park and Ride containers
- Broken or unused holiday light can be taken to Lowes or Home Depot
- Clean and dry packing peanuts can be taken to "Ship, Copy & More"
- Plastic disposable bags can be placed in containers at area grocery stores.
