THE SEVENTH YEAR IN REVIEW ~ This week I will be completing my seventh year as Pastor of St. Thomas. I present here a few highlights of the past year.

Beginning with finances, for the third year in a row, (after many years of deficit spending), the ordinary operations of the Church resulted in a surplus at the end of the fiscal year on June 30, 2016. In assessing the viability of parishes, our Diocese looks at the ability of the parish to pay its ordinary expenses with its ordinary income, and save some resources to invest in the future. This year's surplus was $54,600, a slight decrease from the previous year when it was $60,358. This surplus was in spite of a 2.65% decline in all of our offertory collections. The operating surpluses are added to our savings for future needs. My goal has been to curb expenses wherever possible in order to continue to operate the parish with a surplus each year.

With regard to parish school finances, we have also turned the corner away from the previous years of continuous deficit spending. Last year, we had a small surplus of $5,227 and this year we had a significant surplus of $77,887. This will help to compensate for the many years of deficit spending in the past. Our principal, Tom Kane and our bookkeeper, Barbara Ruggirello have been working hard to have a better handle on monitoring expenses and consequently this financial improvement is due to the reduction of expenses as well as to an admirable increase in fundraising by the school community. We will continue to focus on helping our school operate without a deficit in order to guarantee its future viability.

The major change in parish staff was in the role of Office Assistant, when Patricia Agneta moved out of state and Paul Edmundson filled the position. He is doing a great job in handling the front desk in the parish office and preparing the weekly bulletin for publication. The other change took place when two other staff members had an increase in their work hours in order to expand their ministries: Mary Ann Hospodar (Youth Ministry) and Maura Barrett (Pastoral Care). Mary Ann's work continues to grow as she works as an assistant to Elizabeth Kerins, offering Christian Service and prayer and retreat experiences to the Middle and High School youth. Maura has taken on additional responsibilities in the area of Sacramental Preparation for those preparing for Matrimony, work formerly done by Deacon Al before he moved the previous year to be Parish Life Director at Immaculate Heart of Mary parish in Watervliet.

As for Adult Faith Formation, during Lent we offered a study of Pope Francis' encyclical "On the Care of our Common Home" (Laudato Si'). Following the study, a group of participants began meeting to discern ways to help implement this papal teaching into the life of the parish. Regular information was added to the weekly bulletin and also an assessment was done on our parish plant with regard to environmental issues. We are currently addressing the recommendations offered by the study. We will again engage the parish in exploring the insights of Pope Francis on Care for our Common Home during this upcoming Lent. Meanwhile, the Fall book study explored the life and heritage of Thomas Merton. In addition, the annual "Food for Thought" evening sponsored by the parish Public Policy committee dealt with the issues surrounding the role of "Caregivers".

With regard to capital expenses, the only item was the replacement of the piano in the church. We were able to find a quality second-hand instrument and its purchase was covered by donations to the Memorial Fund.

With the new fiscal year in July, we welcomed new members to our Finance Committee to work with our bookkeeper, Barbara Ruggirello to monitor our finances. We also welcomed Adalgisa (Adele) Nucci as our new parish Trustee to replace Regina Bryde Kalet who successfully completed her six year term.

In July, I traveled to our Sister Parish of San Antonio de Padua outside the city of Merida, Yucatan, Mexico. Margarita Harman accompanied me on the trip as we sought to determine the future of our relationship with the parish under the auspices of their new pastor, Father Raul Cardoz. The Sister Parish relationship was established many years ago between Father Provost, pastor of St. Thomas and Father Castro, pastor of San Antonio. After Fr. Castro's retirement, (and subsequent death,) the parish was under the auspices of the Augustinian Friars, during which time our communication began to fail. When we heard that a diocesan priest was again in charge of the parish we decided to meet with him to see if he wished to continue a Sister Parish relationship. He was indeed most gracious and welcomed us to re-establish the relationship. Father Cardoz hopes to visit us here in Delmar later this Spring.

Last September, I was relieved of my responsibilities as Diocesan Director for the Spanish Apostolate. I had been able to secure the services of Father Jorge Reyes, OSA, to work with me in the Apostolate the previous year and he has now assumed the role of Diocesan Director. I continue to serve on his Executive Board and will fill in with Spanish liturgies from time to time in the future.

As I complete this seventh year at St. Thomas, I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all the parish staff and volunteers who do so much to make the pastoral ministry here vibrant and healthy. Thanks to our music staff and the many volunteers who work with Virginia Acquario to enhance the beautiful environment of the church, our liturgies and parish celebrations truly support and strengthen our faith.

Back in 1973 there were sixteen of us ordained for service to the Albany Diocese. Currently, Father John Provost at St. Mary's in Albany and myself are the only ones still left in active parish ministry. I will reach the diocesan retirement age of 70 toward the end of April and the Bishop informed me in November that my retirement will be effective on May 1, 2017. As I anticipate my retirement, I plan to follow the example of Fr. Leskovar, and, when available, serve as a weekend helper where needed in the diocese. I have also informed Fr. Jorge Reyes that I would be willing to help out with Spanish liturgies as well. The past seven years have been very challenging but thanks to the support of so many here at St. Thomas, I believe I have been able to make a positive contribution to the parish and I ask the Lord to continue to bless the people and the ministry in this faith community.

Congratulations, Mrs. Aleta Lyons! ~ St. Thomas the Apostle School has been informed by the Catholic Schools Office that Aleta Lyons will receive the Mother Francis Cabrini Distinguished School Support Award at the annual Catholic Schools Weed Diocesan Mass on Sunday, January 29 at 2 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The Mother Francis Cabrini Distinguished School Support Award honors a member of the school community who challenges the entire community to make a stronger commitment to the school's Catholic mission through the personal giving of time and talents. This stewardship is an affirmation that the education of our youth involves the entire community. Mrs. Lyons has been a volunteer at St. Thomas the Apostle School for well over a decade and despite the fact that her children have graduated and are well into adulthood, continues to volunteer multiple days each week. Over the years, Mrs. Lyons has made a difference for hundreds of children! Thank you and congratulations, Mrs. Lyons!

All parishioners, existing families, and families interested in learning more about St. Thomas the Apostle School are welcome to join us for our annual Preschool-Grade 8 Open House and Learning Expo on Sunday, February 5 at 10:00 a.m. For more information, contact Carmel Foltan.

Caring for Our Common Home

(Contact: Jeanne Schrempf: jdschrempf@verizon.net)

As our nation prepares for the transition to new leadership, we are reminded of the words of Pope Francis. ~ "What is involved in the creation of 'a better world'? The word does not allude naively to abstract notions or unattainable ideals; rather it aims at an authentic and integral development, at efforts to provide dignified living conditions for everyone, at finding responses to the needs of individuals and families, and at ensuring that God's gift of creation is respected, safeguarded, and cultivated."

For our parish family:

- Continue the good work of our new recycling initiative that can provide clean water for our sisters and brothers in third world countries. There is a box in the Gathering Area for the collection of wrappers from protein, granola, and energy bars. 1 wrapper equals 1 point. 6 points equals clean water for 1 person for 1 day. Save those wrappers. Encourage your children to bring them home from their lunches. We have already filled one box and have started a new one.
